Sump Pumps:

It's that time of year again when sump pumps will be starting. Remember to put your sump pump drain outside the house, not in the sewer. Our lift station cannot handle any access drainage.

Summer Student:

The Town of Bredenbury has been approved for a summer student grant. Duties will include but not limited to: cutting grass, pulling weeds, trimming branches, cleaning shop, minor vehicle maintenance.

If you are at least 16 years of age; and going to school again in the fall; and are interested in summer employment with the Town of Bredenbury, then please submit your resume to: Town of Bredenbury, 201 – 3rd Street, PO Box 144, Bredenbury, Sask. S0A 0H0 or email bredenbury@sasktel.net

Dogs & Cats:

In the near future residents that are known to own a dog will be sent letters requesting their registration if they have not already done so. Along with the letter will be a copy of the bylaw.

Please remember there is a list of prohibited dogs that are not allowed in Bredenbury. If you have a prohibited dog and are not following the strict bylaw guidelines the financial penalty is $1000.00. Here is the list for quick reference: Pit Bull Terrier; or American Pit Bull Terrier; or Pit Bull; or Rottweiler; or Presa Canario; or Doberman Pinschers; or Alaskan Malamutes; or German Shepherds; or Great Pyrenees or Any dog of mixed breeding, identified as a dog of partial mix of any of the above indicated breeds or kinds.

This Bylaw has been around for several years and all the towns in the area have a similar bylaw, the RCMP also has a copy of the bylaw.

Town of Bredenbury will also be catching dogs and cats that are running at large and will be kept in the town shop for three days, if the owner comes forward they will be subject to a financial penalty, if the owner does not come forward the dogs will try to be re-homed.

Business News:

Mings Restaurant is open again, same hours as previous.
Round Up is now also selling some grocery items.

Hall Walking:

If you are looking for a place to walk, the hall will be available from 9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. during town office hours for residents to walk. All children must be accompanied by an adult. Bring clean shoes. Just stop at the office to have hall opened and stop at the office to have hall closed when you are done.
